

Draft report of the Working Group on the Universal Periodic Review of Indonesia, specially recommendation related with human right in West Papua (May 2017)

Following some recommendation on West Papua:

The recommendations formulated during the interactive dialogue/listed below have been examined by Indonesia and enjoy the support of Indonesia

- 5.51. Improve training and administrative instructions for police and local authorities to ensure that the right to peaceful assembly is universally respected, including in the Provinces of Papua and West Papua (Germany);
- 5.67. Ensure human rights obligations in Papua are upheld, respected and promoted, including freedom of assembly, freedom of the press and the rights of women and minorities (New Zealand);

The following recommendations will be examined by Indonesia, which will provide responses in due time, but no later than the thirty-sixth session of the Human Rights Council in September 2017:

- 7.24. Extend an invitation to the Special Rapporteur on the rights of Indigenous Peoples to visit Indonesia, including Papua, in line with the opening of Indonesia to collaborate with special procedures (Mexico);
- 7.29. End prosecutions under Articles 156 and 156a of the criminal code for exercising freedom of religion and expression (United States of America);
- 7.31. End prosecutions under Articles 106 and 110 of the criminal code for exercising freedom of expression and peaceful assembly (United States of America);
- 7.30. Repeal or amend Articles 106 and 110 of the Criminal Code to avoid restrictions on the freedom of expression (Germany);
- 7.62. Thoroughly and transparently investigate past human rights abuses (United States of America);
- 7.63. Finalise the investigation of all human rights cases in Papua (Australia);
